

PROVIDER ALERT

Optum Idaho Conference

September 1, 2020

Alert Summary: For any provider who might be interested, this is an invitation to submit a proposal for presenting at the Optum Idaho Conference.

Dear Provider,

The Optum Idaho Conference is a statewide event established to provide a platform for all licensed providers, paraprofessionals, behavioral health care administrative and business professionals and leaders to share their individual knowledge, expertise and experiences, and to collectively discuss emerging opportunities and potential solutions. The conference will take place on April 13-14, 2021 at JUMP in Boise, Idaho and streamed live to multiple other locations throughout the state. The theme is A Changing Idaho: Challenges and Opportunities.

In order to take advantage of the wide-ranging expertise and interests that exist within the network, Optum Idaho invites you to participate in shaping the conference by submitting your proposal for presentation.

While presentations will be streamed to various locations across Idaho, anyone interested in presenting must be able to do so from the main conference location in Boise. All conference sessions will be 1-1.5 hours long, and we are seeking submission proposals related to the following topics:

- Evidence-Based Practice
- Success with the CANS Tool
- Integrating CANS into Practice
- The Future of Behavioral Health Care (e.g., value-based care)
- Workforce Development
- Diversity, Culture, and Care
- Person-Centered Care
- Vicarious Trauma and Burnout
- Topics not listed here that are of relevance and significance to you

If this is of interest, please click <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/OptumConferenceProposal> to submit your proposal by the deadline of September 22.

We encourage you to invite colleagues to participate in the conference and submit presentation proposals. Please note that participants can present only once during the conference. To ensure a positive and diverse experience, priority will be given to submissions from a wide array of agencies and organizations.

Thank you,
The Optum Idaho Team
