

PROVIDER ALERT

Aug. 1, 2022

Alert Summary: This alert informs you that the Optum Idaho Conference is now open for registration and provides details on how to attend.

Dear Provider,

We are excited to announce that the Optum Idaho Conference is now open for registration! The second annual Optum Idaho Conference is a statewide event established to provide a platform for all behavioral health and primary health care providers, administrative and business professionals and leaders and other community stakeholders to share their individual knowledge, expertise and experiences and to collectively discuss emerging opportunities and potential solutions. You may attend as many or as few sessions as you like.

When: Oct. 18-19, 2022

Where: JUMP in downtown Boise* or virtually

Cost: FREE

CEUs: Up to 14 approved by NASW

Who: Anyone may attend

We have a wide variety of topics, including:

- Partial Hospitalization
- Peer Support
- DSM-5-TR
- Getting Families More Engaged in Care
- Facilitating a Virtual Group
- Parenting with Love and Limits
- Vicarious Trauma
- Non-surgical Trans-gender Treatment
- Prior Authorization 101
- Ethics: Legal Issues for Mental Health Providers
- Electroconvulsive Therapy (ECT)
- Cultural Humility
- Caring for the LGBTQIA+ Community
- Much more!

We are pleased to have Tom Koulopoulos as the keynote speaker. Tom is the chairman and founder of Delphi Group, a 30-year-old Boston-based think tank named one of the fastest growing private companies by Inc. Magazine, and the founding partner of Acroventure Ventures, which invests in early-stage technology startups. He is the author of 13 books, including Reimagining Healthcare, in which he describes methods for fixing the health care system without substantial policy change. Tom is also an Inc.com columnist, the past executive director of the Babson College Center for Business Innovation, the past director of the Dell Innovation Lab and a professor at Boston University.

In addition, actress Mariel Hemingway will be sharing her story of mental and physical health with a message of hope, truth and possibility. Mariel is a health advocate who spent a lifetime studying how mental and physical health are linked. Her work is focused on what to do to transform negative messages and influences into healing that becomes radiant energy, full of purpose and balance. She is an author, film/television producer and unstoppable voice in the ever-changing conversation around living a healthier, more meaningful life.

A variety of agencies and organizations participating include the American Psychiatric Association, Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU), Idaho Department of Health & Welfare (IDHW), National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) Idaho, Holland & Hart LLP, Cottonwood Creek Behavioral Hospital and more.

Please visit optumidahoconference.com for all the details. We hope to see you there!

Thank you,

The Optum Idaho team

Attendees must be fully vaccinated to attend in person*