If you are interested in providing this service and you meet the required qualifications listed below, we encourage you to participate, as you must have your Youth Support endorsement to render this service to members. As a reminder, a Youth Support provider must have an existing Peer Support Certification. Youth Support endorsement is Optum Idaho-issued and only valid within Idaho Medicaid.

Provider Qualifications:

1. Minimum of a high school diploma (or equivalent)
2. Current Idaho Peer Support Specialist Certification: <https://www.bpahealth.com/idaho-peer-cert/>
3. Lived experience with serious emotional disturbance (SED) or SED co-occurring with substance use disorder (SUD) as a youth or adolescent (standalone SUD lived experience is not eligible)
4. Recovery for a minimum of one year
5. Successfully passing a screening process
6. It is recommended that providers of this service are between the ages 21-30 and have a strong personal connection to current youth culture to connect with youth on a peer-to-peer level based on shared knowledge and experience

Endorsement: Alert Summary:

The Optum Idaho Youth Support endorsement is granted upon completion of all the following:

1. Obtain and maintain an Idaho Peer Support Specialist Certification, which must be current and valid prior to enrolling in online training
2. Complete the enrollment form
3. Complete screening interview with Youth Support Trainer: Providers must successfully pass the screening interview
4. Full attendance at a live webinar training over a four-day period
5. After full completion, provider logs into Relias to print their endorsement certificate

The cost of training supplies and materials is $50 per person for providers who successfully pass the applicant screening process (the remaining cost of training is covered by Optum Idaho). Instructions for payment to the Idaho Federation of Families will be provided upon acceptance into the Youth Support endorsement training.

For more information on other Peer training, such as Family Support and Peer Support, please contact: BPA Health Peer and Family Support Certification.
